

U.S. CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES

Denny Rehberg (R) DID NOT RESPOND

Q What role should the government play in guaranteeing quality health care services to everyone, regardless of ability to pay?

John Driscoll (D): Our government, in return for public service, should offer preventive and basic health care. Cover elective care with insurance or private programs. Integrate veterans, elderly and children's programs early.

Mike Fellows (L): America had the best health-care system imaginable until the Federal government moved into the field in the 60's. Health insurance was accessible to all and doctors even made house calls.

Q Please indicate whether you support or oppose the following: The 1973 Supreme Court case Roe v. Wade that legalized abortion;

We need to work on less restrictive adoption laws, and encourage private educational efforts to show young women the alternatives to abortion.

Q Women's reproductive health is increasingly threatened by exposure to toxic chemicals that are found in everyday consumer products. Do you support or oppose federal legislation requiring manufacturers of cleaning products to fully disclose ingredients on the product label?

I have a 100% approval rating from NARAL and was a co-sponsor in Planned Parenthood's fight to uphold the Freedom of Access to Clinics Entrance Act. I am also proud to have been able to announce the $1 million to fund 15 family planning clinics around Montana. The clinics offer family planning services on all medically approved methods of contraception.
